

Important Notice Regarding Federal Regulatory Compliance for Self-Luminous Sign Orders

Per 10 CFR 32.52 – U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission Requirements

Federal regulations require us to collect and report the information requested on this form for every self-luminous sign we ship. To ensure full compliance with 10 CFR 32.52, the information must be provided before your order can be released to production.

Important Notes:

- This information is required by regulation and is not optional.
- The responsible party cannot be a contractor, installer, or electrician. It must be someone employed by the entity that operates or owns the installation location.
- Signs cannot be installed in temporary structures such as jobsite trailers or used for temporary applications.

We appreciate your cooperation in meeting this regulatory requirement. Failure to provide the required information will delay production and shipment of your order. If you have any questions or need assistance, please contact customer service.
